Finding Your Promised Land

Author: Jan Puterbaugh

Jan Puterbaugh is a writer and pastor serving a small congregation in Longwood, Florida. He is passionate about helping people discover who they are in Christ and healing their lives from past pain, as well as finding true fulfillment in life through their growing relationship with Jesus.

He has been known to frequent places most Christians stay away from like bars and homeless shelters, just to get to know people and share in their lives. One of his passions is seeing people reach their promised land.

Jan loves a good German beer, a good cup of coffee, good conversation full of laughter, as well as jamming with other musicians and making good music.

He and his wife, Kelly, have been married over 34 years. They have two married daughters and five grandsons and live just north of Orlando, Florida.

Reviews

"I really like this book! Jan paints a candid portrait of what life can be like when we deal with abusive relationships, addictions, hopelessness, and various other curve balls life is guaranteed to throw our way. But even more than that, I like the way he masterfully paints a portrait of hope, pointing us to the promises of the Scriptures, while using practical, heartfelt stories."

Pastor Joseph Thompson, Executive Dir. of Spiritual Development, Action Church, Winter Springs, FL

"Prepare to embark on an adventure where you are sure to be challenged, encouraged, stirred, and changed. Using the Exodus story as a roadmap, Jan interweaves his personal journey, Biblical teaching, and life principles to provide a helpful guide to finding faith, freedom, and fulfillment in the exhilarating journey with Jesus."

Journey to Your Promised Land

There are times in our lives when we recognize we need to regroup to move ahead, when we need to embark on a journey. Maybe we find ourselves in bondage on some level; maybe we feel called to step out of our familiar existence and move into uncharted waters. Or maybe we are simply moving into a new phase of life. The question is this: How do we prepare for the journey so we can make it to the destination?

As you read these pages, as you possibly see yourself in this narrative so many of us share, my prayer is you will be given the strength to depart on this journey and the knowledge of what to expect along the way, so you will be able to enter and live in your promised land. Let's prepare for the Exodus of our lives.

- Get ready to go
- Develop attitudes that build and guide your heart
- Develop your plan
- Focus on the journey
- Find your promised land
