

Interview Questions for Jan Puterbaugh

1. What inspired you to write Exodus of Our Lives?
2. If there was one sentence that could summarize this book, what would that be?
3. In the book, you say, "Our Journey in life is not about the quantity of miles we walk, it is about the quality of our daily walk." Why do you feel that way?
 - b. "When we hunger and thirst to do what is right, we can hardly be wrong."
4. What's the most important thing readers will learn from Exodus of Our Lives?
5. When do you write? Is it easier to write in the morning or at night?
6. What would you say is your interesting writing quirk?
7. Do you view writing as a kind of spiritual practice?
8. Where can we buy the book?

10/7/2018